The Mexicans had hoisted the black flag as an assurance that no quarter would be given, but not a man quailed, each resolving to die as became a Texan patriot. On the fifth of March Colonel Travis addressed a last appeal to the country, under cover of darkness. He said: "I am still here in as fine spirits could be expected, with one hundred and eighty men. I have held the place ten days against more than thirty times our number, and I will continue to hold i until I get relief from my countrymen, or will perish in the defense. 'The black flag which is borne by the enemy gives token that the fight is to be one extermination against rebels."

This address had been prepared early in the evening, approved by all the officers, a number of copies made, and one of the most skillful riders in the command had volunteered to carry it through the enemy's lines. The night was dark and a thrilling storm of rain and sleet was falling, when the courier mounted, and gave the parting words to his comf rades, Colonel Travis standing beside him, with folded arms, looking steadily to the right, where the long lines of Mexican camp fires blazed in the dark-

DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup

FOR THE CURE OF FEVER AND AGUE. OR CHILLS AND FEVER.

June 16

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for and Fever or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strict ly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been suffi-Hickman Encampment, No. 51, and Ful- cient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case nore certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two atter the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the boxels in meets every Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock. good order Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the tonic,
